Graduate Scholarships	"Scholarships for graduate school can help students pay for college and supplement their income as they pursue a graduate-level academic or professional degree. Even with a variety of options to help reduce the cost of their degree, including fellowships, teaching assistantships, and stipends, graduate students face stiff competition to obtain these awards and often continue struggling to pay living expenses once they receive financial assistance. Graduate scholarships are designed to meet the unique needs of this student group as they strive to obtain their degree in the years ahead." Eligibility requirements for graduate scholarships typically vary according to the source and type of scholarship. Scholarships may be awarded based on the academic merit, financial need, or cultural heritage of the student, or in a particular subject or industry. Awards may be offered by corporations, government agencies, universities, and professional and nonprofit organizations. Please see website for requirements for specific scholarships. The Kyle Gohr Leadership Scholarship	"This scholarship was inspired by an AdvantaClean employee. As a military veteran, Kyle saw firsthand how PTSD and substance abuse affected those around him, after coming back from deployment. Rather than stand on the sidelines, his passion is to work for Veterans Affairs as a counselor, and is currently pursuing his degree. The founding of AdvantaClean started with a mission to help people, and we couldn't be more proud to support Kyle in his venture. That is why the Kyle Gohr Leadership Scholarship was started. In Kyle's honor, we would like to broaden our support, by offering a $1500 scholarship to those pursuing a degree in mental health. For AdvantaClean, this is a way for us recognize and say thank you for the sacrifices people like Kyle make to better our communities. " Applicants must have a declared major related to mental health. All applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent legal residents of the United States. All applicants must be either: (1) a high school senior graduating or earning a GED who will enroll as a freshman at a two-year or four-year college or university in spring 2018, or (2) a student enrolled during the 2018-19 academic year on a full-time basis and in good academic standing at an accredited two-year or four-year college or university or in an accredited graduate school program. UKIES Innovative Women's Scholarship	"UKIES is proud to announce a $2,000 Innovative Women's Scholarship. Entrepreneur and technology pundit Vivek Wadhwa once said, "A key ingredient in innovation is the ability to challenge authority and break rules." At UKIES, we strive to go against the grain of traditional footwear by making shoes that are both comfortable and stylish for women. However, we know that so many women are discouraged from pursuing their dreams of being inventors and innovators in favor of a more "conventional career." We want to encourage all innovators who are on their way to college to continue shaking up the world with their brilliant new ideas. Our goal is to help ease the financial burden of college for women innovators so they can continue their mission of seeing the world in new ways and, in turn, making life easier for those around them." Applicants must have solved common problems in their lives or the lives of others through innovative methods, and/or have a mindset and lifestyle centered around innovation. Applicants must be a Sophomore, Junior, or Senior in an accredited college or university and have a 3.0 GPA or higher, and must submit an essay regarding one of the topics listed (see website for topics list).
